For your orientation in Bremen:

Roland Statue

Symbol of trading rights and freedom since 1404

There are Roland statues in many German towns and cities, symbolizing freedom and market rights. Bremen's Roland statue is one of the most beautiful, and, according to UNESCO experts, the most representative and one of the oldest examples. Together with Bremen's town hall, the statue received World Heritage status on 2 June 2004.

The Roland Statue is positioned in the heart of the city of Bremen. You find it on the central market place (MARKTPLATZ) of Bremen, just in front of Bremen's famous and historic town hall "BREMER RATHAUS".
